

Daniel Kashnitsky

- Phone.: +33-758-88-49-11
 - e-mail: kashnitsky@gmail.com
 - Nationality: Russian, Israeli
 - Address: 22, Rue de la Gare Bièvres, 91570, France
-

Professional experience

06.2023 – now

Cermes3, Paris Cité University

Postdoctoral researcher

Research project: East-European refugees in receiving countries: barriers, coping strategies and community engagement to enable effective access to HIV and TB care

09.2020 – now

Regional Expert Group on Migration and Health

(remote work, office based in Tbilisi Georgia)

Academic Relations Coordinator and co-founder

Advocating for the health migrants' access to healthcare in the region of Eastern Europe and Central Asia, Conducting operational research, Grant applications, grant management and reporting, numerous lectures, interviews and presentations at academic, civil society and government events.

05.2014 – 04.2022

Higher School of Economics

(based in Moscow, Russia)

Junior Researcher, Institute for Social Policy

Research design development, conducting desk research and fieldwork, drafting and publishing articles in peer-review regional and international academic journals (see list of publications below), presenting at conferences and other expert platforms at the nexus of academia and civil society initiatives.

08.2019 – 06.2020

Linköping University, Sweden

Guest researcher, Research Center for Migration, Ethnicity and Society

under supervision of Anna Bredström.

01.2019 – 09.2020

TB Europe Coalition

(remote work, office based in Kyiv, Ukraine)

Community, Rights and Gender Program Manager

Coordinating the development of training modules and guidelines; Experience in proactive strengthening the capacity of community-based organizations, networks, and consultants to provide technical assistance for members and partners of TB Europe Coalition in EECA; participation in WHO and STOP TB Partnership expert groups; expertise in Sustainability, transition and related processes, i.e. health financing, budget accountability and advocacy, social dialogue and social contracting; proven expertise in Addressing gender, age and human rights related barriers in relation to access to and retention in HIV, TB and malaria services.

10.2017 – 10.2018

European and Central Asia Union of People Living with HIV

(remote work, office based in Kyiv, Ukraine)

Technical Support Consultant, Global Fund regional program Equitable Access to HIV Care Continuum in the EECA region

Daily provision of technical support to community organizations to implement advocacy plans within GF grants (in 10 countries of EECA region): support in review and development of national documents, building capacity in budget advocacy, partnership and stakeholder communication; conduct program monitoring and evaluation; program support to regional advocacy campaign to promote migrants' rights to access HIV and TB care in Russia and EECA. Member of the EECA Regional Migration and Health Community Expert Dialogue.

09.2015 – 09.2017

Eurasian Harm Reduction Network (based in Vilnius, Lithuania)
Program Manager, Sustainability and Transition Team

Manager of the Global Fund project "Equitable Access to HIV Care Continuum in the EECA region" in 7 countries.

Manager of the Eurasian Regional Consortium project funded by the Robert Carr Fund.

Grant management, donor relations and reporting, program monitoring and evaluation, community development, technical support related to advocacy of access to HIV care continuum for key affected groups, capacity development, presenting at regional and national public health conferences to highlight budget advocacy and the transition of EECA countries from international donors' support to national funding.

08.2013 – 05.2014

Higher School of Economics (Moscow, Russia)
Manager, Student Resource Center (full-time)

Developed annual plan for student trainings and conferences on project management and promotion of volunteer and student community initiatives at the University.

Consulted student organization on project development.

10.2011 – 02.2013

Partners In Health (Moscow, Russia)
Training Manager (full-time)

Conducted needs assessment, developed curriculum and materials on psychosocial support of TB patients to train over 100 social workers, psychologists, medical staff and NGO coordinators in 7 regions of Russia within the USAID-funded project Effective Tuberculosis Control in the Russian Federation.

Education

11.2018 – 04.2023

Paris Cité University,
Higher School of Economics, Russia and Linköping University (180 credits)
PhD in Sociology and Demography

Dissertation: Barriers and informal strategies to access medical care for irregular labor migrants living with HIV in Russia

08.2009 – 06.2011

Lund University, Sweden (120 credits)
Master of Science in Public Health

Concentration: epidemiology and biostatistics, health communication, social diseases, reproductive health, and rights.

Thesis project: Swedish caregivers' perceptions regarding the provision of care for Somali women during pregnancy and delivery: a qualitative study.

09.1998 – 06.2003

Moscow State University (Moscow, Russia)
Specialist in Theoretical and Applied Linguistics

Languages and PC skills

Languages:

Russian	-	native fluent
English	-	advanced
French	-	advanced
Hebrew	-	good

Computer skills:

confident user of MS Office tools, incl. MS Publisher, Google applications and social media

Other professional engagements

- Board Member of TB Europe Coalition, Kyiv, Ukraine
 - Board Member of the Health Advocacy Coalition
 - Member of People-centered care Wolfheze working group
 - Member of Regional Civil Society and Community Support, Coordination and Communication Platform in EECA
 - Member of WHO EURO Regional Collaborating Committee (RCC-THV)
-

Publications

Kashnitsky D., Richter J. M. 'In Short, We Will Deport You': Disrupted temporalities of migrants with HIV in Russia // Global Public Health. 2021. P. 1-20. Doi

Kashnitsky D. 2020. The Russian HIV residence ban and state control of migration. Journal of Public Health Policy, 1-11.

Demintseva E., Kashnitsky D. 2020. The role of "Kyrgyz clinics" in the life of Central Asian migrants in Moscow, book chapter. Migrations in the transnational perspective. (in Russian)

Kashnitsky D. 2018. Les femmes migrantes centrasiatiques à Moscou: développement de strategies formelles et informelles pour accéder aux soins de santé / Cahiers d'Asie Centrale. (in French)

Kashnitsky D., Demintseva E. 2018. Kyrgyz clinics' in Moscow: Medical Centers for Central Asian Migrants. Journal of Medical Anthropology, vol. 37, issue 8.

Demintseva E., Kashnitsky D. 2016. Contextualizing Migrants' Strategies of Seeking Medical Care in Russia. International Migration. Vol. 54. No. 5. P. 29-42.